Tues. 21 September – 8pm by Zoom

Timber Framed Buildings – a talk by Helen Gibson

Helen assisted her husband, the late Adrian Gibson, for over 40 years investigating ancient buildings in Hertfordshire and Essex, latterly for listing by English Heritage and advising Historic Royal Palaces. Houses and farm buildings can now be dated and can confidently be shown to be from the 12th century to the present. Helen will include buildings from Hertfordshire and Essex.

Tues. 19 October – 8pm by Zoom

AGM followed by a Quiz just for Fun

Find out how FOHM is coping during the pandemic and then have a go at a Fun Quiz that will test your local knowledge from the comfort of your home.

Tues. 16 November – 8pm by Zoom

The Malt Industry in Hertfordshire – a talk by Helen Gibson

This time Helen's topic will be about the making of malt. For many years it was the most important economic activity in East Hertfordshire. The towns of Hertford, Ware and Bishop's Stortford were dependent on this vital industry, now almost completely ceased.

December – no meeting

As we are not meeting face to face until March we regret that we have to accept that there will be no Christmas social meeting this year.

January – Winter Break

Tues. 15 February 2022 – 8pm by Zoom

My Role as Mayor of Hertford – a talk by Cllr Bob Deering

Cllr Deering became the Mayor of Hertford in May 2020 just a few weeks after the country went into lockdown. Now in his second term, Bob's first year as Mayor was unique and he's enjoying the experience of Mayoral life gradually coming back to normal.
